Nov. 7, 1903.

Mr. Allan M. Fleming,

Treasurer Agricultural College of Utah, City.

My dear Sir:

Your favor of Oct. 23d, regarding the payment of certain notes held by you against employees of the Agricultural College, was duly received. I have delayed answering until I could ascertain definitely when the payments would be made. I have approved the bills of professors Robinson, Peterson, and Jenson, so their notes can be taken up as soon as their warrants are returned. Whatever notes you still hold against professors Widtsoe and Merrill should be taken up at once.

The Board of Trustees will meet a week from to-day, so that any bills remaining unpaid can be approved and final settlement made with you.

Sincerely yours,

Very truly yours,

President.
